

ZERO NOT HERO

Be careful what changes you make, you might take out something important!

To encounter by chance, or by arrangement.

Fail; withdraw; go out of business; bend or crease.

Irrelevant point of debate.

Name of unit measuring half a quart.

A relative absence of heat; a common illness.

Lumber; tree trunk material.

Slang or jargon of a group; shortened form of cannot.

Opposite of right

Really small; Tim Crachit's nickname.

Timid rodents; or computer input devices.

Cause or object of worry; or to tend to needs.

Light two-wheeled vehicle, pushed or pulled by hand or by horse.

U.S. jazz singer and pianist, Nat "King".

Explosive device that may be buried as a trap.

Speed competition.

A defensive ditch around a castle.

Loc, rapper famous for "Wild Thing" and "Funky Cold Medina".

Period of religious observance beginning on Ash Wednesday.

Hue or shade; to darken.

A penny; a 100th part of a base currency.

Shape with a circular base rising to a point.

Provisions; edibles; nourishment.

Gallery; small apartment; hay platform in a barn.

Spoils, plunder taken by pillaging, as in war.

Club-like weapon with a balled head and spikes.

Quintessential part of something; edible part; animal flesh as food.

Grieve for; intensely long for; or an evergreen tree.

Being unusual in occurrence; uncommon.

Debonair alter-ego of Iron Man.

Main part of a sentence; a promise.